I show a card and the one who says it first gets to choose a box from the grid(i.e. A1, D4, C2). The boxes either have money, a swap, or typhoon. If they get the typhoon, they loose all their money. If they get a swap, they have to swap their money with another player. The winner is the one with the most money at the end of the game. Jenga: I split the students into two teams and select one person from each team. I then show them a flash card, and the one who says it first does not have to play. The one who said it second has to take a block from the tower. The team who makes the tower fall over loses. Scrabble Dice: There is a cup of dice with letters on them and each team takes turns rolling the dice and trying to make connecting words with them. The winner is the one with the most points at the end of the game. Pictionary: There are two teams and one person from each team takes turns drawing a picture of one of our vocabulary words on the board. The team belonging to the person who is drawing gets 10 seconds to guess what they our drawing and if they can't guess what it is after 10 seconds then the other team may guess too. Whichever team guesses the word correctly gets one point and the team with the most points at the end of the game wins.
